

George Winston

REMEMBRANCE
A MEMORIAL BENEFIT

Piano, guitar and harmonica solos

1. Lament piano (2:26)
2. Where Are You Now guitar (4:09)
3. Remembrance piano (3:55)
4. Where the Sun Rises First (Kumakahi) guitar (5:11)
By the great Hawaiian Slack Key guitarists Moses Kahumoku and George Kahumoku, Jr.
5. Farewell Medley harmonica (8:55)
Farewell (trad. Scottish)/ Emerging (Winston)/ My Country 'Tis of Thee (Samuel Francis Smith, 1831)/ Taps (Daniel Butterfield & Oliver Norton, 1862)
6. Daughters and Sons guitar (4:31)
Two songs played as a medley, composed by L. Ke'ala Kwan, Jr., eldest son of the great Hawaiian Slack Key guitarist Leonard Kwan (1931-2000). Ke'ala composed these pieces in the Hawaiian tradition of composing songs for newborn children, and titled them Makahiamoe 'o Ke'ala (Lullaby for Ke'ala) for his daughter, and Makahiamoe 'o Ka'oluokalani (Lullaby for Ka'oluokalani) for his son.

BONUS TRACK:

7. Lullaby 2 piano (2:03)
For Steve Liane and all the beloved departed. Everywhere.

Total Time: 31:23

=====

Recorded September 16 & 17, 2001

Produced by George Winston, Cathy Econom & Howard Johnston

Engineered & mastered by Howard Johnston

Additional engineering by Justin Lieberman, Jon Mayer, Mark Slagle & Adam Muñoz

Design by Janene Higgins. Current edition revisions by Lynn Piquett

Songs composed or arranged by George Winston, published by Dancing Cat Music (BMI), and administered by Wixen Music Publishing Inc., except: Where the Sun Rises First (Kumakahi) by Moses Kahumoku & George Kahumoku Jr., published by Onipa`a Publishing Company (BMI); and Daughters and Sons by L. Ke'ala Kwan, Jr., published by L. Ke'ala Kwan, Jr.

Special thanks to Ke'ala Kwan, Jr., George Kahumoku Jr. and Moses Kahumoku for donating their publishing royalties.

Also thanks to:, Sam Hinton, Rick Epping, Ted Greene, Amy West, Pua Lilia, Simone Dreifuss, George Levinson, Paula Perlis, Ginger Crosby, Chris Orrall, and Mary Winston.

www.georgewinston.com